NORTH BENGAL STATE TRANSPORT CORPORATION (LEAVE) REGULATIONS, 1963

NOTIFICATION

Dated the 24th December 1963

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) read with clause (c) of sub-section (2) of section 45 of the Road Transport Corporations Act, 1950 (64 of 1950), and with the previous sanction of the State Government, the North Bengal State Transport Corporation (hereinafter referred to as the Corporation), hereby makes the following regulations regulating the grant of leave to officers and servants of the Corporation other than the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Accounts Officer, namely:—

REGULATIONS

- 1. (1) These regulations may be called the North Bengal State Transport Corporation (Leave) Regulations, 1963.
- (2) They shall be deemed to have come into force with effect from 15th April 1960 in supersession of the leave rules issued under Home (Transport) Department letter No. 7242-WT/1E-13/48, dated the 6th October 1953, as amended from time to time.
- 2. These regulations shall apply to all grades of employees of the Corporation. In the cases of employees who have lien on substantive appointments in other departments or offices of the Central or the State Government the leave rules applicable to them in their substantive appointments shall continue to apply until the lien on their substantive appointments is terminated.

Explanation: In these regulations "employee" does not include the Chief Executive Officer, or the Chief Accounts Officer of the Corporation.

- 3. Classification of Staff: For the purposes of these regulations the employees of the Corporation shall be broadly classified under the following three groups:—
 - (i) Employees enumerated in Appendix 'A'.
 - (ii) Employees enumerated in Appendix 'B'.
 - (iii) Employees enumerated in sub-rules I and II of Appendix 'C'.
- 4. Weekly holidays defined: Sundays shall ordinarily be considered as weekly holidays.
- 5. Festival holidays defined: Holidays declared under the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, shall be considered as festival holidays.
- 6. Compensatory leave defined: Leave granted in lieu of duty performed on a Sunday or a weekly off day or a holiday shall be deemed to be compensatory leave.
- 7. Weekly holidays: (i) Employees enumerated in Appendix 'C' may ordinarily be given holidays on Sundays: provided that if an employee is called upon to work on Sunday, he may be subsequently given a day's compensatory leave. Such compensatory leave may be granted in conjunction with other holidays and may either be prefixed or affixed to such holidays but may not be both prefixed and affixed to holidays and may not be combined with casual leave or other regular leave.

- (ii) Employees enumerated in Appendices 'A' and 'B', when called upon to work on a Sunday may be given one off-day in the week.
- (iii) Provided that if the off-day cannot be availed of by an employee in the interest of public service, he may be subsequently given a day's compensatory leave. Such compensatory leave may be granted in conjunction with other holidays and may either be prefixed, or affixed to such holidays but may not be both prefixed or affixed to holidays and may not be combind with casual leave or other regular leave.
- 8. Festival Holidays: (i) Employees enumerated in Appendix 'C' shall be entitled to all festival holidays declared under the Negotiable Instruments Act of 1881.
- (ii) Employees enumerated in Appendices 'A' and 'B' shall be entitled to 12 paid festival holidays in a year as detailed in Appendix 'E'. If an employee is called upon to work on such holidays he will be entitled to compensatory leave in lieu of such holidays:

Provided that such compensatory leave may be granted only in the month in which it is earned or in any case in the next following month, and should in no case exceed 2 days at a time. Such leave in excess of 2 days at a time may, however, be granted by the appropriate authority at his discretion only if the person concerned gives notice for this purpose at least three days in advance. This leave may be affixed or prefixed to regular earned leave but not to casual leave subject to the condition that if such compensatory leave is taken during the first six months of any calendar year, not more than six days may be so affixed or prefixed. No compensatory leave can be taken in advance.

- Note 1: (i) All compensatory leave shall lapse at the end of the financial year.
- (ii) As an exception, employees enumerated in appendices A and B who are entitled to 12 paid festival holidays in a financial year or compensatory leave in lieu of such holidays, but have not availed of fully or partly such holidays or compensatory leave by the 31st March shall be entitled to additional earned leave to the extent of holidays or compensatory leave not availed of up to a maximum of six days.
- 9. Leave: Leave cannot be claimed as of right. When the exigencies of public service so require, discretion to refuse or revoke leave of any description is reserved to the authority empowered to grant it.
- 10. Casual Leave: Ten days' casual leave in a year on full pay may be granted to all categories of staff as noted below:—
 - (i) For employees enumerated in Appendices A and B—not more than two days' casual leave may be granted in a month.
 - (ii) For other employees—not more than seven days' casual leave may be granted at a time.

Casual leave cannot be combined with any other kind of leave or festival holidays and shall not be carried over from one year to another and shall not be granted so as to infringe the normal rules regarding the—

- (a) date or reckoning allowances,
- (b) charge of office,
- (c) commencement and end of leave, and
- (d) return to duty,

or so as to extend the term of any leave beyond the time admissible by these regulations.

11. Earned Leave: (i) 15 days' leave on average pay for every year's duty may be granted to all categories of employees. Leave may be allowed to accumulate up to 90 days. Leave admissible on account of service extending over an incomplete year may be calculated on a pro rata basis:

Provided that such an employee shall not be allowed to enjoy earned leave for more than 60 days in a year out of the total earned leave due:

Provided further that in the case of employees enumerated in Appendices A and B such leave shall not exceed 30 days at a time on full average pay.

(ii) The following employees enumerated in Appendix 'C', who could not avail fully of compensatory leave in lieu of working on Sundays or holidays by 31st March, shall be allowed additional earned leave to the extent of compensatory leave not availed of subject to the maximum of 10 days in a year over and above the earned leave admissible under clause (i):—

Operation: Traffic and Inspection Officer.

Depot: Engineer-in-Charge of Raiganj Division.

- 12. Medical leave: Medical leave on half average pay may be granted to all categories of employees on production of a medical certificate from the appropriate Medical Officer of the Corporation up to a limit of 24 days for every year of service commutable to 12 days' leave on average pay. Such medical leave may be allowed to accumulate up to a maximum of 60 days, commutable to 30 days on average pay and in case of protracted illness only, subject to the following conditions:
 - If any person has earned leave of 30 days or more at his credit, he may be granted earned leave only and shall not be entitled to the benefit of accumulation or commutation of medical leave. The benefit of commutation shall be admissible only when earned leave at the credit of a person falls short of 30 days, and to the extent by which the earned leave so falls short; and the period of accumulation shall be to the extent of double the period of commutation admissible.
- 13. Maternity Leave: Maternity leave with full pay may be granted to a female employee up to four weeks prior to and four weeks after the date of her confinement provided that she had been in the service of the Corporation for at least nine months immediately preceding the date of delivery.
- 14. Extraordinary Leave: Extraordinary leave without pay not exceeding three months on any one occasion may be granted to all grades of employees in special circumstances—

(a) when no other leave is admissible under these regulations, and

(b) when other leave is admissible but an employee applies in writing for extraordinary leave (see relaxation in Appendix 'D').

15. Injury Leave: Injury leave may be granted on half average pay to the employees enumerated in clause (a) of Appendix 'A' and in clause (i) of Appendix 'B' if the injury is accidentally incurred in or in consequence of the performance of the employees' official duties. The period of such leave may be such as may be certified by a registered medical practitioner either appointed by the Corporation or formally recognised by the Corporation and shall in no case exceed three months.

Note: In the case of a person to whom the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923, applies, the amount of leave salary payable under these regulations shall be reduced by the amount of compensation payable, if any, under the relevant sections of the said Act.

16. Special Disability Leave: On special occasions when the performance of duty is rendered more risky due to strike, hartal, etc., in and around the area of operation of the Corporation, the employees referred to in regulation 15 who are disabled by injury inflicted or caused in or in consequence of due performance of official duties may be granted special disability leave on full pay. The period of such leave may be such as may be certified by the Medical Officer of the Corporation and shall in no case exceed three months..

Note: In case of an employee to whom Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923, applies, the amount of leave salary payable under these Regulations shall be reduced by the amount of compensation payable, if any, under the relevant sections of the said Act.

- 17. Quarantine Leave: Quarantine leave for a period not exceeding 21 days, or, in exceptional circumstances, 30 days, may be allowed to all grades of employees on production of a certificate of a Medical or Public Health Officer corroborating the presence of infectious disease in the family or household of the employees concerned. Absence on quarantine leave shall not be treated as absence from duty and the pay shall not be intermitted.
- 18. Leave Salary: Leave salary of an employee shall be equal to his average pay or to his average substantive pay for 12 complete months preceding the month in which leave is taken, whichever is greater.
- 19. Leave at the credit of an employee in his leave account under the previous leave rules shall be carried forward to leave account under these regulations with effect from the 15th April 1960 subject to the limits prescribed in regulations 11 and 12.
